

Saltfleetby-Theddlethorpe Dunes – part of the Lincolnshire Coronation coast National Nature Reserve

This new NNR combines 2 existing reserves:

- Donna Nook (managed by the Ministry of Defence working with Lincolnshire Wildlife Trust)
- Saltfleetby-Theddlethorpe Dunes (managed by Natural England working with Lincolnshire Wildlife Trust)

This site is the first new NNR declared as part of the King’s Series, which marks the coronation of His Majesty King Charles III.

This NNR is held and managed by:

- Environment Agency; Lincolnshire County Council;
- Lincolnshire Wildlife Trust; Ministry of Defence;
- Natural England; North East Lincolnshire Council;
- Royal Society for the Protection of Birds

Saltfleetby-Theddlethorpe Dunes National Nature Reserve

Dynamic Dunescapes LIFE/HLF project ends and legacy <https://dynamicdunescapes.co.uk>

Work on site on-going control of scrub via mechanical and grazing

New enclosures have been created, to continue the Clematis management

Regular visitor events; and fortnightly volunteer parties

keep in touch visit our Facebook and check the car parks noticeboards to contact us saltfleetbytheddlethorpennr@naturalengland.org.uk

